

FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Last week we celebrated one hundred days of school. Although we have had to move the marking due to four snow days, the occasion remains a teachable moment for students in our earlier grades as they move from concrete understanding to abstract comprehension. One hundred days is also an opportune time to evaluate the current school year and ask ourselves if we are moving forward in the correct direction. It is a time to check our compass to evaluate who we are as a school, what we do well, and where we need to improve.

As a charter school, laws established by the Commonwealth of Massachusetts determine certain elements of our programming. The Common Core State Standards and the MCAS assessments, soon to be replaced by the PARCC assessments, are solid examples of this limited autonomy. However, Massachusetts General Laws, Part I, Title XII, Chapter 71, Section 89 was written, implemented and revised to provide some definition on the purpose of establishing charter school throughout the Commonwealth. Seven purposes are identified within Section 89 (b). The first three purposes of charter schools are defined in Section 89 (b) as the following:

- (i) to stimulate the development of innovative programs within public education;
- (ii) to provide opportunities for innovative learning and assessments;
- (iii) to provide parents and students with greater options in selecting schools within and outside their school districts;

In consideration of the original intent of charter schools and who we are as a school community, we hold true to certain ideals. To be able to balance statewide requirements with innovative learning is indeed a challenge. As a school community we have embraced state mandated accountability and remain encouraged by our growth and achievement in statewide assessments. Yet we have to ask ourselves if success in statewide standardized testing means success in achieving educational innovation and successful student life outcomes.

These are questions that our faculty and administration ask consistently with each new development and requirement from the Massachusetts Department Elementary and Secondary Education. The reconciliation of the new statewide requirements and the original intent of charter schools is the gray area in which we know we must define ourselves.

The reminders of the importance of innovation are frequent. A few weeks ago, the South Shore Charter Public School received notification of eleven students enrolled in the School's innovative art program winning this year's Scholastic Art Awards. Two students at the middle school level received awards; Kenny Dera won Honorable Mention, and Sabrina Sprague was awarded a Gold Key. Students at the high school level in the Graphic Design and Fine Arts Workshops received awards as well. Katherine Griffiths, Jessica Hoffman, Edina Lemkin, Grace Moore, Morgan Rousseau, Kaylee Urquiza-Anagnos and Ila White all received Honorable Mention. Nicolas Moore and Tyler Tsang were awarded the Gold Key. All three Gold Key winners will advance to a national competition and will receive recognition during an exhibition at Boston City Hall from March 7 to March 30.

Another example of our inquiry-based learning model, and the success of our purpose, was evident during the MathCounts South East Regional Competition. This was the first time the South Shore Charter Public School entered a team into this competition. Our math team, Ana Aniagu, Nicky Aniagu, Henry Chao, Zoe Childs, Jared Farmer, and Ryan Gallagher have been practicing for this competition as part of their Project on Level IV. All students performed well; Henry Chao received an award for placing fourth overall and qualified to compete at the State Level MathCounts competition on March 8 at the Wentworth Institute of Technology in Boston.

Our students are exceedingly talented, that is no secret. But talent not nurtured is like a seed in dry sand. This opportunity, fostered by an innovative inquiry-based model of education and a hardworking faculty, Marianne Buckley Curran, Christine Bodnar, and Jody Regan, remind us all of the importance of our original intent.

Events of the past week provide the opportunity for our school community to think about the third purpose of charter schools. The annual Enrollment Lottery was held on Saturday, February 8, 2014. This year was a record year for applications, resulting in 928 applications being entered into the lottery for 63 anticipated openings. In addition to this year's data, Table I provides some essential data on student application trends for our school and district over the past three years.

Table I: Applications Received by Grade Level

Grade	Received FY13	Received FY14	Received FY15	Anticipated Openings FY15	Siblings FY15
K	171	193	197	38	12
1	52	72	84	4	2
2	40	69	87	0	0
3	42	59	74	0	4
4	47	62	83	0	7
5	41	66	85	0	2
6	45	59	84	1	2
7	32	46	62	0	0
8	14	34	59	0	1
9	38	50	72	15	0
10	10	16	22	1	1
11	4	7	17	4	1
12	0	0	2	0	1
Total	536	733	928	63	33

The data presented on Table I make it challenging to reconcile the third purpose of charter schools with our current reality. Over half of our grade levels have no anticipated openings. Although this may change by the beginning of the next school year, the odds for new families seeking enrollment for their children are difficult to overcome. If the de jure purpose is, to provide parents and students with greater options in selecting schools within and outside their school districts, so few openings create a de facto exclusion from educational opportunity.

And so it is time once again to check our compass and I ask for your help in doing so. Below please find the link to our Annual Parent Survey. Data gleaned from this survey will be used in our Annual Report and on our Application for Renewal of a Public School Charter. Please fill out this survey at your convenience. All survey responses are due by Friday, March 14, 2014.

Thank you for all you do and for all you have helped us become.

*Have a wonderful, safe, and restful February vacation.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

2014 Yearbook

The 2014 yearbook is now in progress and all the memories of the 2013-2014 school year will be published forever in print. A yearbook is a trip back to those fun times in school when friends were forever and life was an exciting promise. It captures that feeling and brings those times back again and again. Someday your student will want to look back, too. Buy them a little time - buy them a yearbook! To order online go to www.coffeepond.com, to login use school password: bluejaguar.

Do you have a project that needs money? Is there an idea you want funded?

The Parents Association can help!

Twice per year the PA asks for requests from the SSCPS community (parents, teachers, staff, students) for grants to fund anything from projects, equipment, speakers, or whatever your imagination deems important to the school. We review all the requests, and fund the ones that both meet our criteria, and fit into our budget. Submit a request today, because you never know! Requests are due NO LATER THAN Tuesday, February 25th, 2014. See the attached form for details.

HEALTH OFFICE

The Health office will be assessing the 8th and 10th grade students BMI (Body Mass Index) during the next month. This assessment is a calculation of height, weight, age, and gender. Please conduct Susan if you do not wish your child to participate in this program.

WHAT'S HAPPENING IN PROJECTS AND WORKSHOPS?

The Political and Social Action Workshop in the high school is hosting a drawing to raise money for the Home for Little Wanderers Charity. The drawing is open to the entire school and includes: Red Sox tickets, an iPod nano, and gift certificates. Tickets will be sold at the front of the school from 8-8:15 every morning until the Friday after returning from vacation, February 28th. The winners will also be announced that same day. Please participate and help raise money for those in need!

COMMUNITY SERVICE OPPORTUNITIES

Gently Used and New Children's Book Collection

Shannon Daly (Donovan's room Level III) is collecting "slightly used" books for children, ages 2 to 14, whose parents are students at the Adult Learning Center in Brockton. Each year, all of the adult learners and their children are invited to come and choose books that they can take home so they can create an at home library. The Learning Center relies on donations from community members to make this give-away possible. A lot of the time this is the only way they receive books. The collection box is located outside of Donovan's Room in Level III, and any donations would be greatly appreciated! For larger donations please contact Barbara at barbara6910@msn.com

Level III Student Collected Donations for Standish Humane Society

My name is Abbey Farmer, and I'm collecting donations for the Standish Humane Society in Duxbury. It is a no-kill shelter for abandoned, abused, and stray cats. There will be a donation box in the level 3 great room, along with a list of the shelter's needs. Donations will be accepted from January 30 until February 13. Please make a donation and help cats in need! Thank you.

COMMUNITY INTEREST

Full Moon Stroll at Holly Hill Farm: All ages are welcome to come take a stroll on the paths of Holly Hill Farm by the light of the full moon on Friday, February 14 at 6 pm. There is much to see and hear, as we head out on a well-lit trail to note the winter stirrings. Dress for the weather and meet at the main barn at 6 pm. Join us for a cup of hot cocoa after the walk. This event is free and all ages are welcome. This event is scheduled with a clear night in mind. If the sky is solid clouds we will reschedule for another clear full moonlit night. Please check our website for any last minute weather changes, www.hollyhillfarm.org or call 781-383-6565.

Composting Workshop: Saturday, March 1, 2014 from 10 am to noon. Come to Holly Hill Farm for an informative workshop that will cover the basics of making an indoor compost bin using red wiggler worms. These amazing red wigglers can eat half their weight of kitchen food scraps per day creating a special compost that gardeners love. If the weather allows, we will also step outside to learn about making compost in your backyard. Space is limited so please call 781-383-6565 to pre-register. Cost is $12 per person for Friends of Holly Hill Farm members ($24 max per family), $15 per person for non-members (max $30 per family). Holly Hill Farm is located at 236 Jerusalem Road, Cohasset. For directions and more information, visit www.hollyhillfarm.org.

It's time to sign up for Summer Camp at Holly Hill Farm. We offer fun farming, gardening, and nature exploration programs for children ages 3 – 18 from June 9 through August 15. Other programs include cooking using farm-grown produce, art on the farm, designing and building small items such as bird and bat houses, and “Drama on the Farm” where campers will create and present their own play on the farm. There are exciting opportunities for teens to grow food to sell at the Cohasset farmers market, and a free community service program for older teens to grow and harvest produce to be donated to Father Bill's Place in Quincy. We guarantee your children will come home dirty and happy! Complete information and registration forms are available at www.hollyhillfarm.org.

2013-2014 Free and Reduced Income Eligibility Guidelines:

Your children may qualify for free or reduced price meals if your household income falls at or below the limits on this chart.

Use of Information Statement: This explains how we will use the information you give us.

The Richard B. Russell National School Lunch Act requires the information on this application. You do not have to give the information, but if you do not, we cannot approve your child for free or reduced price meals. You must include the last four digits of the social security number of the adult household member who signs the application. The social security number is not required when you apply on behalf of a foster child or you list a Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP), Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) Program or Food Distribution Program on Indian Reservations (FDPIR) case number or other FDPIR identifier for your child or when you indicate that the adult household member signing the application does not have a social security number. We will use your information to determine if your child is eligible for free or reduced price meals, and for administration and enforcement of the lunch and breakfast programs. We MAY share your eligibility information with education, health, and nutrition programs to help them evaluate, fund, or determine benefits for their programs, auditors for program reviews, and law enforcement officials to help them look into violations of program rules.
