

FROM THE 7-12 PRINCIPAL

With the late date of Thanksgiving this year we are left with only a short sprint until we break for the holidays. This time of the year moves rapidly and is bursting with activity. Before 2014 is over our students will perform in a production of Annie Jr., continue the tradition of Level II Roman plays, dance at the High School semi-formal, address health issues during High School Health Day, and create masterpieces on Craft Day. The “life” portion of our mission will be evident to anyone walking our halls in December. Some of the events in the next few weeks including the Fashion Show, the Faculty vs. Students basketball game, and the High School portion of the winter concert, are tied to the work of our Projects and Workshops. All Projects and Workshops have culminating events, performances, and celebrations integrated into the school calendar. This is an important component of the Project/Workshop model that provides students with an opportunity to present their work to an audience and a chance to celebrate meeting a goal. I hope to see many of you at these events in the next few weeks.

This week marks the midpoint of the second quarter and Warnings will be mailed to families on Friday. For students in grades 5-12 those reports will also be posted on PlusPortals. Through conversations with parents about the new portal, it has come to my attention that many are having difficulty accessing the posted reports. All of us, faculty, students, parents, and administrators alike, are still learning how to use the available online tools to their full potential. The online reports contain more information than the report cards and Warnings that are mailed home as they also include scores on individual assignments and category subtotals. In many cases individualized comments are also available. In response to the confusion accessing reports, Ralph “Rio” deGennaro, Director of Technology, created a document to demonstrate the steps necessary for access. The instructional document can be found at <http://jaguarstyle.sscps.org/parentwarnings>; it is also accessible at the PlusPortals login page. If you have a child in grades 5-12 and did not log in following the close of the first quarter, please take the time to do so now. Don’t hesitate to contact me if you need assistance with your login information.

On another more personal note, as many of you may already know, I am expecting a new baby early next month. While my current plan is to return after the holiday break and work for as long as possible, this decision is not really in my hands. Nature may have different plans for me. This will likely be my last Update before I return from leave in April. I will miss SSCPS while I am gone and look forward to being here for the close of the school year. I know that the next few months will be busy and productive ones at SSCPS, and I can’t wait to be caught up on all of the student achievements I will miss while I am away from school. I will be witnessing and celebrating some significant milestones with my family. I’d like to thank the entire SSCPS community; parents, students, and faculty, for the outpouring of congratulations and support that you’ve given me as I prepare for this important event in my personal life.

Level IV Literary Project Hosting Toys for Tots Drive

The Literary Magazine Project is hosting a Toys for Tots community service event. According to the organization's website, the mission of this project is to collect new, unwrapped toys during October, November, and December each year, and distribute those toys as Christmas gifts to less fortunate children in the community in which the campaign is conducted. The last community service event our project organized was extremely successful, raising approximately $430. Toys for Tots is an unique event, though. You are not being asked to donate money. This time we ask that you to donate toys to brighten up a child's holiday season. We are accepting brand new, unwrapped toys. Donation boxes can be found in Rachel's classroom (found in Level 4), the high school, and in the front lobby. We hope you decide to donate. Thank you!

COMMUNITY SERVICE OPPORTUNITY

Gently Used and New Children's Book Collection

Level IV student, Shannon Daly, is collecting "slightly used" books for children, ages 2 to 14, whose parents are students at the Adult Learning Center in Brockton. Each year, all of the adult learners and their children are invited to come and choose books that they can take home so they can create an at home library. The Learning Center relies on donations from community members to make this give-away possible. A lot of the time this is the only way they receive books. The collection box is located in the front lobby and any donations would be greatly appreciated! For larger donations please contact Barbara at barbara6910@msn.com

SCHOOL PARTNERSHIPS: THE WEEKLY HARVEST

This week with Holly Hill School Partners

Recently, the Holly Hill Farm educators welcomed the Weymouth High school environmental science students for a three hour field trip. We made compost and harvested parsnips, beets and turnips for a roasted vegetable lunch and kale for a kale chip snack. Soon, we will plant garlic at Cohasset High school in their courtyard garden. While our public programs are the most visible outreach we provide the local community, our Farm Educators have partnerships with more than 40 schools along the South Shore Is your school one of them? Happy growing, teaching and learning.

Stories, Speakers & Partnerships

As a small, non-profit, we are always appreciative of exposure and our small staff of farmers and farm educators are happy to provide interviews or copy for upcoming stories on farms, organic farms, summer camps, or children's programs. Our Farm Educators are available to speak and lead workshops for garden clubs, community organizations and local events. We are also open to discussion on collaboration for potential workshops and partnerships that would support our mission and promote local food and organic farming along the South Shore and beyond. Please contact Lori at friendsofhollyhillfarm@gmail.com if you have any upcoming stories or ideas.

FEAR OF SPOILING: Rethinking Common Assumptions About Children (and Parenting)

Wednesday, December 3, 2014
at 7:00 PM

Don't Miss Alfie Kohn!

The conventional wisdom is that helicopter parents are everywhere, overprotecting their children instead of letting them learn from failure; that we indulge and coddle rather than setting limits, with the result that we're raising a generation of narcissists; that grades are inflated and trophies handed out too readily. But are these criticisms new? Are they true? And what underlying values—as well as assumptions about child development, human behavior, and motivation—have led even political progressives to sound like social conservatives when the conversation turns to children? Drawing from his newest book, The Myth of the Spoiled Child, Alfie Kohn challenges media-stoked fears and misconceptions about kids—what they're like and how they're raised.

Alfie Kohn is the author of 13 books on education, parenting, and human behavior. He has appeared twice on "Oprah," as well as on "The Today Show" and many other TV and radio programs. Kohn works with educators and parents across the country and speaks regularly at national conferences. More info is available at www.alfiekohn.org

Please join us for what will surely be a thought-provoking lecture and discussion!

Dear Parent/Guardian:

Children need healthy meals to learn. South Shore Charter Public School offers healthy meals every school day. Breakfast costs $1.75; lunch costs $3.25. Your children may qualify for free meals or for reduced price meals. Reduced price is $0.30 for breakfast and $0.40 for lunch.

1. Do I need to fill out an application for each child? No. Complete only one Free and Reduced Price School Meals Application for all students in your household. We cannot approve an application that is not complete, so be sure to fill out all required information. Return the completed application to: Charlene Evans, Food Services Coordinator, 781-982-4202.
2. Who can get free meals? All children in households receiving benefits from MA SNAP, MA TAFDC or the Food Distribution Program on Indian Reservations, can get free meals regardless of your income. Also, your children can get free meals if your household's gross income is within the free limits on the Federal Income Eligibility Guidelines.

If you have received a NOTICE OF DIRECT CERTIFICATION for free meals, do not complete the application. But do let the school know if any children in your household are not listed on the Notice of Direct Certification letter you received.

3. CAN FOSTER CHILDREN GET FREE MEALS? Yes, foster children that are under the legal responsibility of a foster care agency or court, are eligible for free meals.
4. Can homeless, runaway, and migrant children get free meals? Yes, children who meet the definition of homeless, runaway, or migrant are eligible for free meals. If you believe children in your household meet these descriptions and haven't been told your children will get free meals, please call or e-mail Angie Pepin, 7-12 Principal, 781-982-4202 or aepin@sscps.org.
5. WHO CAN GET REDUCED PRICE MEALS? Your children can get low cost meals if your household income is within the reduced price limits on the Federal Eligibility Income Chart, shown on this application.
6. SHOULD I FILL OUT AN APPLICATION IF I RECEIVED A LETTER THIS SCHOOL YEAR SAYING MY CHILDREN ARE APPROVED FOR FREE MEALS? No, but please read the letter you got carefully and follow the instructions. Call the school at 781-982-4202 if you have questions.
7. MY CHILD'S APPLICATION WAS APPROVED LAST YEAR. DO I NEED TO FILL OUT ANOTHER ONE? Yes. Your child's application is only good for that school year and for the first few days of this school year. You must send in a new application unless the school told you that your child is eligible for the new school year.
8. I GET WIC. CAN MY CHILD(REN) GET FREE MEALS? Children in households participating in WIC may be eligible for free or reduced price meals. Please send in an application.
9. Will the information I give be checked? Yes and we may also ask you to send written proof.
10. If I don't qualify now, may I apply later? Yes, you may apply at any time during the school year. For example, children with a parent or guardian who becomes unemployed may become eligible for free and reduced price meals if the household income drops below the income limit.

11. What if I disagree with the school's decision about my application? You should talk to school officials. You also may ask for a hearing by calling or writing to: Alicia Savage at 781-982-4202 or email asavage@sscps.org or by mail to 100 Longwater Circle, Norwell, MA 02061.
12. May I apply if someone in my household is not a U.S. citizen? Yes. You or your child(ren) do not have to be U.S. citizens to qualify for free or reduced price meals.
13. Who should I include as members of my household? You must include all people living in your household, related or not (such as grandparents, other relatives, or friends) who share income and expenses. You must include yourself and all children living with you. If you live with other people who are economically independent (for example, people who you do not support, who do not share income with you or your children, and who pay a pro-rated share of expenses), do not include them.
14. What if my income is not always the same? List the amount that you normally receive. For example, if you normally make $1000 each month, but you missed some work last month and only made $900, put down that you made $1000 per month. If you normally get overtime, include it, but do not include it if you only work overtime sometimes. If you have lost a job or had your hours or wages reduced, use your current income.
15. We are in the military. do we include our housing allowance as income? If you get an off-base housing allowance, it must be included as income. However, if your housing is part of the Military Housing Privatization Initiative, do not include your housing allowance as income.
16. My spouse is deployed to a combat zone. is her combat pay counted as income? No, if the combat pay is received in addition to her basic pay because of her deployment and it wasn't received before she was deployed, combat pay is not counted as income. Contact your school for more information.

SHARING INFORMATION WITH MEDICAID/SCHIP

Dear Parent/Guardian:

If your children get free or reduced price school meals, they may also be able to get free or low-cost health insurance through Medicaid or the State Children's Health Insurance Program (SCHIP). Children with health insurance are more likely to get regular health care and are less likely to miss school because of sickness.

Because health insurance is so important to children's well-being, *the law allows us to tell Medicaid and SCHIP that your children are eligible for free or reduced price meals, unless you tell us not to. Medicaid and SCHIP only use the information to identify children who may be eligible for their programs. Program officials may contact you to offer to enroll your children. Filling out the Free and Reduced Price School Meals Application does not automatically enroll your children in health insurance.

If you do not want us to share your information with Medicaid or SCHIP, fill out the form below and send in (Sending in this form will not change whether your children get free or reduced price meals).
