

FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Friday evening the South Shore Charter Public School community was alive with excitement for the debut of the musical Annie Jr. With much excitement, coupled with a little bit of the fear that comes with new territory, our school community finally found ourselves at Opening Night. And what a night it was.

Great moments are often the result of great efforts. Students from Levels II, III, IV and the High School had been working on this production for months. As days grew shorter, rehearsals grew more intense, filling our hallways with show tune singing, intricate choreography, and the trial and error of script reading and line reciting. Each day of afterschool rehearsal transformed us from a K-12 school to New York City during the Great Depression. I watched as Level II became a radio broadcast studio, a Level III classroom became an orphanage for girls, and the gym became the streets of New York City. Annie Jr. became more than an entertaining Broadway musical. It taught us about United States History, the perseverance of children, the importance of the adults in children's lives, and about hope. This weekend, our students delivered these messages repeatedly, and we never tired of hearing it.

Expectations can leave us guessing. Who knew there was this much talent held captive inside our students, parents, and faculty? After the performances on Opening Night and Saturday afternoon we all did. Whether it was watching a ten-year old child hit every single note, or a set design on the stage worthy of the Wang, or buckets, rags, and brooms hitting the stage floor in perfect unison, we know this much is true; talent abounds here, with us, at this very school.

Faculty members who attended the show treated colleagues to some great reviews over the weekend. These reviews were so well written and heartfelt, they should be shared:

Hats off to all! The performance was an amazing display of talent, heart, and school community. How wonderful to see our students in another role outside of the classroom, where each of them shone like a brilliant star in the lights onstage (and behind the scenes, too!). ~ Bev Bruce, Level II

*I was very lucky to have caught Friday night's performance of Annie Jr., and I am certain I am not alone in saying that I was absolutely blown away by the amazing acting, singing, costumes, dancing, scenery, makeup, lighting, and musical accompaniment of the production! High Fives to Kerry Tondorf, Shawn, and Dan for one heck of a marvelous production. I was an after school drama teacher at my old school, and even three years in, we were never able to pull anything close to that level off! What a joy to see students of mine present and past, many of whom I knew were talented, but many for which seeing them on a stage was a total surprise, so comfortable and confident in the spotlights in front of that huge, enthusiastic crowd. ~ Emily Lincoln, Level I and II*

What a testimony to the spirit of leadership and community that enabled this to happen. What a celebration of our K-12 school! It was a stellar performance! Thank you all. ~ June Fontaine, Level I

These reviews struck the chord of the production's success; the talent was evident school wide. The amazing sets were brought to us by three high school workshops, the Art Workshop, the Helping Hands Workshop, and the Global Graphic Design Workshop as well as our tireless volunteer parents, faculty, students, and alumni. The result was beautiful and stunning.

Of course, there are many, many members of this school community who deserve a standing ovation for all of the effort put forth over the past few months. This week's update includes the inside page of the program to fully acknowledge the wonderful cast and everyone who so willingly gave of their time and talent. And of course, none of this would have been possible without one person in particular who came to our school with a wonderful idea. I would like to extend a sincere thank you to Kerry Tondorf, who volunteered countless hours of her time and expertise to make the vision real for our children. Thank you to Kerry, and our talented cast, and to all who participated, attended and supported Annie Jr. Our children did a wonderful job and experienced a level of success that creates the memories of a lifetime.

We are looking forward to another magical night of great singing at tonight’s Winter Concert. I hope to see you there.

The luncheon hosts about 80 faculty/staff members, and they love and appreciate the assortment of food that is sent in by our families. They look forward to our luncheons every year!

Volunteers are also needed to help with clean-up. (12:30-2:30).

If you would like to donate or would like to volunteer for clean-up, please contact me directly at jpettinelli123@hotmail.com.

Level IV Literary Project Hosting Toys for Tots Drive

The Literary Magazine Project is hosting a Toys for Tots community service event. According to the organization's website, the mission of this project is to collect new, unwrapped toys during October, November, and December each year, and distribute those toys as Christmas gifts to less fortunate children in the community in which the campaign is conducted. The last community service event our project organized was extremely successful, raising approximately $430. Toys for Tots is a unique event, though. You are not being asked to donate money. This time we ask that you to donate toys to brighten up a child's holiday season. We are accepting brand new, unwrapped toys. Donation boxes can be found in Rachel's classroom (found in Level 4), the high school, and in the front lobby. We hope you decide to donate. Thank you!

COMMUNITY SERVICE OPPORTUNITY

Gently Used and New Children's Book Collection

Level IV student, Shannon Daly, is collecting "slightly used" books for children, ages 2 to 14, whose parents are students at the Adult Learning Center in Brockton. Each year, all of the adult learners and their children are invited to come and choose books that they can take home so they can create an at home library. The Learning Center relies on donations from community members to make this give-away possible. A lot of the time this is the only way they receive books. The collection box is located in the front lobby and any donations would be greatly appreciated! For larger donations please contact Barbara at barbara6910@msn.com

SCHOOL PARTNERSHIPS: THE WEEKLY HARVEST

This week with Holly Hill School Partners

Recently, the Holly Hill Farm educators worked with 4th graders and built new beds and planted garlic at the Academy Avenue elementary school in Weymouth. The idea for the growing beds was hatched by a group of last year's 3rd graders to grow more healthy food. Next week, the Friends will stir and mix compost and spread seaweed with 5th graders at the South River school in Marshfield, as an effort to tuck in the gardens for winter. While our public programs are the most visible outreach we provide the local community, our Farm Educators have partnerships with more than 40 schools along the South Shore Is your school one of them? Happy growing, teaching and learning. Holly Hill Farm. 236 Jerusalem Road, Cohasset. 781-383-6565. www.hollyhillfarm.org

FARM ACTIVITIES/POTENTIAL ARTICLES

#Giving Tuesday

On December 2, The Friends of Holly Hill Farm participated in #GivingTuesday , a nationwide day of philanthropy. With support provided by a leadership donation from Pilgrim Bank and the generosity of the Holly Hill community, our Farm Pantry Garden Program (FPGP) will benefit greatly for the upcoming season. The FPGP is a free project that engages teens in growing food at the farm that is donated to local food pantries. The FPGP just completed its third growing year, making 3 trips to Father Bill's Place in Quincy this past summer, bringing over 50 pounds of produce to feed shelter residents.

During the morning on #GivingTuesday we had a "work party". Volunteers spread compost and manure on new and exiting garden beds in our Farm Pantry Garden to enrich the soil and ensure better growing in 2015. We harvested turnips and parsnips that will be donated to the food pantry. Contact Education Director Jon Belber at 781-383-6565 or jbelberhollyhill@hotmail.com for more information.

Stories, Speakers & Partnerships

As a small, non-profit, we are always appreciative of exposure and our small staff of farmers and farm educators are happy to provide interviews or copy for upcoming stories on farms, organic farms, summer camps, or children's programs. Our Farm Educators are available to speak and lead workshops for garden clubs, community organizations and local events. We are also open to discussion on collaboration for potential workshops and partnerships that would support our mission and promote local food and organic farming along the South Shore and beyond. Please contact Lori at friendsofhollyhillfarm@gmail.com if you have any upcoming stories or ideas.

SHARING INFORMATION WITH MEDICAID/SCHIP

Dear Parent/Guardian:

If your children get free or reduced price school meals, they may also be able to get free or low-cost health insurance through Medicaid or the State Children's Health Insurance Program (SCHIP). Children with health insurance are more likely to get regular health care and are less likely to miss school because of sickness.

Because health insurance is so important to children's well-being, *the law allows us to tell Medicaid and SCHIP that your children are eligible for free or reduced price meals, unless you tell us not to. Medicaid and SCHIP only use the information to identify children who may be eligible for their programs. Program officials may contact you to offer to enroll your children. Filling out the Free and Reduced Price School Meals Application does not automatically enroll your children in health insurance.

If you do not want us to share your information with Medicaid or SCHIP, fill out the form below and send in (Sending in this form will not change whether your children get free or reduced price meals).
