Vol. 8, Issue 1

FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

I would like to take this opportunity to welcome all our families to the 2017-2018 school year. It was wonderful to be able to greet kindergarten students as they began their educational journey on Monday. Tuesday was filled with more excitement as students from all other grades made their way back to us after summer break. I would like to extend a warm welcome to all our new families who have joined our school community. I would like to welcome back and say thank you to all returning families who believe so strongly in our model of education.

Before new faculty introductions, it is important to mention the situation in Texas and that the beginning of this school year our thoughts are with the people of Houston, Texas who have endured the high winds and flooding of Hurricane Harvey. Although we have much to celebrate as our school year opens, there are others far less fortunate. The news coming out of Texas is difficult. Many citizens of Texas are now homeless, struggling to be rescued, and schools that have been unable to open due to record breaking storm conditions. As of this morning, over ten thousand people were living in an emergency shelter at the Houston Convention Center.

If you would like information on assisting the relief efforts in Texas, the Obama Foundation released a list of some of the organizations providing relief and lifesaving services to those affected by Hurricane Harvey. Some of those organizations may be found below.

Red Cross

The American Red Cross is working around the clock to provide safe shelter and comfort for the hundreds of thousands of people impacted by Hurricane Harvey. Visit redcross.org, call 1-800-RED-CROSS, or text the word HARVEY to 90999 to make a $10 donation.

Southern Baptist Disaster Relief

Southern Baptist Disaster Relief is assisting in the care of thousands of displaced Texans, and working to restore homes. Learn more about how to support their efforts here.

Save the Children

Save the Children is delivering family-friendly relief supplies, setting up child-friendly spaces in shelters, providing specially trained staff to help children, and planning for long-term recovery needs. Support their Hurricane Harvey relief efforts here.

Houston Food Bank

The Houston Food Bank is providing immediate food distribution to families most in need. Donate now or learn more about how to volunteer at houstonfoodbank.org.
