A Message from Alicia

This side of the summer solstice sends us to summer. As we mark the end of another school year, these last days have been filled with moments where we shed routine to make way for field days, field trips, and final exams. During this season of many Exhibitions of Mastery, it is clear how much our school community is enriched by dedicated teachers, hardworking students, and supportive families. Working together, everyone achieves.

Extra daylight and warm weather have allowed us to enjoy all that our students have accomplished. Students in grades K-12 showcased their brilliant work at the third annual Art Show and at the Spring Concerts, both of which were outstanding displays of student talent. We remain committed to the Arts and recognize their significance to our students and families.

We are 31 years old — one of the schools in the initial cohort when charter schools first opened in Massachusetts in 1995. With the passage of time, we have entered into another exciting phase of evolution and growth. Next year, we will have new classrooms on the second floor of 700 Longwater Drive. We look forward to a new art studio, new music classes, and a black box theatre as construction progresses throughout the school year. We are no longer a little school in Hull but an educational institution serving 1,200 students throughout the South Shore, propelled by the mission of inspiring every student to excel in academics and life. At a time when student enrollment is shrinking throughout the Commonwealth, we are heartened by our enrollment growth and our growing impact on education on the South Shore and beyond.

You are a part of this incredible journey. Ongoing success would not have been possible without support from our families. We rely on the support of our families in essential ways, just as we did in 1995 when our school was established. Last year, in honor of our 30th year, members of the South Shore Charter Educational Foundation voted to recognize three of the South Shore Charter Public School's founding families by rededicating awards to scholarships. At this year's commencement, we were honored to present these scholarship awards, renamed in honor of six people who gave so much of their time and talent, ensuring that our young school would reach its first renewal. Their early commitment and foresight paved the way for South Shore Charter to become the school it is today.

The Gregory and Helene Thornton Scholarship Citizenship Award

Greg Thornton served as Chair of the South Shore Charter School Board of Trustees during our earliest years. During those first five years, Greg led the school through numerous crises, mitigating all that came our way with patience and skill. As Chair, Greg oversaw an institutional rebuild that led to the School's first renewal. Helene volunteered in the building daily, serving as a calming presence and the voice of reason for all. As a team, they demonstrated thoughtful leadership and keen insight for navigating the path that lay ahead.

The Roberta and Ed Shea Scholarship Mentorship Award

Roberta Shea served as Vice Chair of the South Shore Charter School's Board during the school's early years. Along with her husband, Ed Shea, they worked tirelessly to support the Charter school we know today. Their belief in our students, families, and faculty at South Shore Charter was unwavering throughout those early and often difficult days.

The Tim Anderson and Pam Cooney Leadership in Workshop Award

Tim Anderson and Pam Cooney were instrumental in the founding of South Shore Charter in 1995. Tim served as the Executive Director of South Shore Charter and strongly believed in the Project and Workshop Model that has distinguished our school throughout the South Shore. Pam Cooney, his wife of many years, also worked at South Shore Charter as a grant writer and state reporter. Their joint vision provided the foundation for our school. Tim later established the World Computer Exchange, which continues to provide crucial technology to students in developing countries. Tim passed away in 2022, leaving a legacy of project-based learning that our school has upheld and grown over the years.

In addition, I would like to thank the Trustees of the South Shore Charter Educational Foundation for their ongoing commitment to our students, staff, faculty, and families. The Foundation is our fundraising operation and the unsung hero of South Shore Charter. Not only does the Foundation designate funds for scholarships, summer programs, and general operating expenses, but its members also provide an invaluable institutional memory. Members of the Foundation are alumni, parents of alumni, and former faculty who serve as Trustees, keeping our School's mission at the forefront of all we do. As this year comes to a close, we are reminded that we are fortunate to be looking ahead to a meaningful future. We are grateful for all that the Foundation has done to make this possible.

The end of the school year is also a time of transition. This year, two members of our faculty and staff are ending this chapter of their lives and turning the page to the next. I would like to recognize Dee Delaney and Daniel Vasconcellos, who are integral to South Shore Charter and will be greatly missed.

Dee Delaney, Assistant to the Administration

Our entire school community is well familiar with the work Dee Delaney does every day. Dee provides student transcripts and working papers. She designs and issues the honors awards each semester, inputs student grades and report cards, and assists with the MCAS. Every day, Dee finds substitutes for faculty and staff absences, often starting her day before 6:00am.

Most impressively, in an amazing display of patience and planning, Dee orchestrates every school picture day. Dee is so well-woven into the fabric of daily life at South Shore Charter that we don't know what we'll do without her. On behalf of the South Shore

Charter Public School, we are grateful for the 17 years Dee has dedicated to her work and wish her all the best in the future.

Daniel Vasconcellos, Art Teacher

For ten years, Dan's art classes have been a haven for students who speak to the world through artistic expression and creativity. Dan's students have delivered a stunning Fashion Show every winter and an amazing Art Show each spring. The student work has been breathtaking, showcasing talent, ability, and perseverance honed through Dan's knowledge and patience.

In Dan's Art Workshop, high school students find a community where they are supported and valued, and encouraged to take risks. For so many of our students, the Art Workshop is the space where they discover their place in the world. Dan's presence, sense of humor, and outstanding teaching will be greatly missed. On behalf of South Shore Charter, we thank Dan for 10 excellent years and congratulate him on his upcoming retirement.

On behalf of all of us here at South Shore Charter, I would like to thank our families for another wonderful, challenging, and insightful year of adventure and learning. We have enjoyed this year, with its ups and downs, and appreciate your putting your trust in us every day. Have a spectacular summer with your children and make lasting memories. Time with family and friends is the greatest gift.

From the Dean's Desk

A few days ago, I was outside during dismissal.

Students were streaming out of the building in every direction. Some were trying to catch up with friends before heading home. Some were carrying projects that looked like they had survived a long journey. More than a few were talking about summer as if it had already started.

Standing there, I found myself thinking about the first week of school.

Back in September, many of these same students were still figuring things out. New classrooms. New teachers. New expectations. Some walked into the building full of confidence. Others took a little longer to find their footing.

The funny thing about working in a school is that you rarely notice growth while it is happening. Every spring, the trees around our building fill back in. It happens so gradually that you hardly notice it from one day to the next. Then suddenly the branches that looked bare a few weeks ago are covered in leaves.

Children grow in much the same way. A sixth grader learns how to keep track of assignments. A fourth grader who once avoided speaking in class starts contributing regularly. Friendships survive disagreements. Children make mistakes, learn from them, and handle the next situation a little better.

The growth is gradual. Often invisible. Until out of nowhere...BLOOM!

Most of these moments pass without much fanfare. They happen in classrooms, hallways, cafeterias, playgrounds, and bus lines. Then one day, near the end of an extra long June, you look around and realize that the students standing in front of you are not quite the same students who arrived in September.

This year had its share of challenges. Every school year does. There were difficult days. Difficult conversations. Mistakes that needed to be addressed. Moments when students needed guidance. Moments when adults needed patience.

There were also a lot of victories.

Now the year is winding down. Classrooms are being packed up. Last projects are being completed. Students are already looking ahead to summer.

I hope they enjoy it. I hope they spend time with their family. I hope they find opportunities for adventure. I hope they read something interesting, learn something unexpected, and make memories that stay with them long after the summer ends.

Most of all, I hope they take a moment to appreciate how much can happen in a single school year. Because while the changes may have been difficult to see from one day to the next, they were happening all along.

Thank you for sharing your children with us this year. It has been a privilege to watch them learn, grow, stumble, recover, and keep moving forward.

Have a wonderful summer.

Warmly,

Walter O. Duncan IV
Dean of Students K-6

For Senior Families - Financial Aid Information

As you consider your options after high school, we encourage you to fill out the Free Application for Federal Student Aid, known as the FAFSA, in order to access grants, federal student loans, and work-study funds for college. Filling out the FAFSA is one of the most important steps students and their families can take to pay for college and is the key to unlocking college financial aid from federal, state, and local sources.

If your immigration status prevents you from qualifying for federal aid, you might still be eligible for aid through the Massachusetts Application for State Financial Aid \(MASFA\), which can help you attend public institutions of higher education in Massachusetts.

Applying for financial aid helps keep college an option for the fall but does not commit you to enrolling. Fill out the FAFSA or MASFA as early as possible to maximize the aid you can receive.

There are resources available to help with this process, including the following:

Go Higher is the Commonwealth's initiative to share information about access and affordability at public institutions of higher education in Massachusetts. Go Higher offers paths that make higher education more affordable—like free community college, free or affordable four-year degrees, career-connected scholarships, and more.

DESE, in collaboration with the Department of Higher Education and the Executive Office of Education, has identified FAFSA resources that may be helpful.

The Department of Higher Education's Office of Student Financial Assistance is the Commonwealth's "go to" on resources concerning student financial aid.

The federal government's FAFSA website includes steps for families, and entities such as the Massachusetts Educational Financing Authority (MEFA) provide information and continuing support during the school year for educators, counselors, administrators, students and their families.

Fill out the FAFSA or MASFA as early as possible to maximize the aid you can receive!
