

Looking for a way to honor a teacher this holiday season? Families can donate a book to a Level I or Level II teacher by choosing an apple from the tree, and then purchasing the selected book on their own to give to the teacher. The “tree” is in the front foyer at 100 Longwater Circle. We hope you will consider going “apple-picking” to get a teacher’s favorite book into their classroom!